

November 2019 Newsletter

Hi, all -

We had a busy meeting in November!

Robyn Hodges held her Wool Fir Tree class, which was well attended. The Challenges pieces were displayed. Best of all, Ann Duggan was with us, and it was great to have her back!

Robyn Hodges' Fir Tree Class

➤ As you know, our next meeting on December 14th, is our holiday party. As usual, there will be a gift exchange, hand made or traditional. You can exchange one or both. Remember to bring one gift for each category if you want to participate in both!

➤ Ania will be vending at the December meeting. She will have wools, patterns, shimmers, metallics, and velvets available. She will also be bringing her metal etching machine if members have anything they'd like to have an id on. See the attached flyer that describes this service and the pricing.

➤ Donations for the local women's shelters will again be accepted at the December meeting. Approximately $300 of items were collected at the November meeting and have been distributed to HAWC (Healing Abuse Working for Change) and Life Bridge. Please remember only new tagged items can be donated. Thanks to Eileen Koch for her dedication and work on this program.

➤ Starting with the December meeting, there will be tables set up for members to bring in rug hooking items they no longer want. There will be three tables; one for free items, one for "Best Offers," and one for sale items. For the sales table, the Mayflower Chapter will receive 10% of the sale price for each item sold.

➤ Jane Sittnick has shared a link to a series of artist interviews produced by Kira Mead, Global Textile Hub's video producer.
