

October 2019 Newsletter

Hi,

A group of Mayflower members toured the Beauport House on October 19th. Everyone enjoyed themselves, and the tour was followed by lunch at the Seaport Grille. The photo below just shows those who went to lunch; a few people weren't able to attend.

The November meeting will be a busy one.

The Project Challenge

The Project Challenge pieces will be displayed. The challenge this year was Movies and Movie Themes, and the finished pieces have to include the color orange. We can't wait to see all of the creative pieces!

Fir Tree Class

Robyn Hodges will be the guest speaker, and she'll be conducting a class on making wool fir trees. The class is full at this time. If you've signed up for this class, be sure to bring your payment with you ($20 for the small tree, $25 for the large one).

Robyn will also be vending. A good opportunity to pick up something you need now or something you'll need for some future project!

Shelter Donations

Mayflower will again be collecting donations of needed winter items for a local women's shelter. Suggested items are hats, ear muffs, scarves, cowls, mittens, gloves, socks, slippers, pajamas, sweat pants, and sweat shirts. If you're interested in participating, please bring your donated items to the November or December meetings.
