

October 2020 Newsletter

Hello!

John Sullivan was the guest speaker at the October Mayflower meeting, and he did a presentation on hooking with yarn. Everyone that joined was thrilled to see his presentation. If you missed it, or want to see some of it again, you can find it on youtube. Just do a search using 'Jon Sullivan ATHA' and it should pop up among the first few videos!

Several members asked him what some of his favorite yarns were, and he mentioned Margaret Arraj at Mill River Rugs. You can check out her website at <http://www.millriverrugs.com/>

Samples of John's work:

Jenna Sleeper's rug was shown in the November ATHA magazine under Lizanne Miller's article. Check it out!

Ildi has come up with the idea of posting all of the hooking Facebook sites, YouTube videos, and other hooking related sites that our members have been enjoying during the pandemic. If you'd like to participate in this, please send your response(s) to Ildi so she can compile them. We'll add your suggestions in upcoming newsletter (Facebook pages in one, YouTube videos in another, etc.).

Catherine Flowers is our guest speaker in January, and she will be doing a (virtual) mini workshop on her zipper heart pin. Below is a picture of it. We'll be discussing this at the November meeting regarding ordering kits. They will need to be ordered by December so that she can send them out to the participants before the January meeting.

With the warm weather we just had, some Mayflower members met up at Obear Park on November 11th. Who knew the weather would be good enough to still hook outside?

Attendees were Andrea Gendron, Maureen Dix, Ann Duggan, Cynthia Dabroski, and Tina Carrick.
