

November 2018 Newsletter

Hope everyone had a great Thanksgiving!

Thanks to Tina Carrick for her great class on making felted animals at our last meeting. There were a lot of laughs, pricked fingers, and at the end a lot of cute sheep in all shapes and sizes. And one unexpected cow.

December Meeting & Holiday Party

A reminder that our meeting on December 8th will be held downstairs on the first floor of the Parish Hall. The church has a meeting that day and needs our usual space.

We'll be exchanging gifts as before. You can bring a traditional gift or a handmade gift or both or none.

Refreshments will be provided by everyone. There will be a lot of good eats!

Ania Knap will be vending at the December meeting as well. Perfect opportunity to pick up a few Christmas gifts for the hookers in your life!

Women's Shelter Donations

Donations were collected at the November meeting. If you wanted to contribute but weren't able to do so, you can bring your donation to the December meeting.

House of Seven Gables Meeting

It's been confirmed that our March meeting will be held at the House of Seven Gables in Salem, MA. Directions will be provided as the meeting gets closer.

ATHA Region 1 Board Positions

Region 1 is looking for nominees for their Board. All positions are open and the term will start in May 2019. If you're interested, see Ann or contact Vivily Powers.
