

March 2019 Newsletter

Hello!

It was nice having our March meeting at the House of Seven Gables in Salem, MA. It's a beautiful place with history around every corner. Literally! A few tourists came through to see what we were working on, and a couple of them even tried their hands at hooking for the first time. It was a fun time.

We're happy to report that Ann and Rose Ann are doing well. They're both recovering at home and getting better every day. We look forward to seeing them at a Mayflower meeting before too long!

As mentioned in the February Newsletter, at the April meeting we are going to have a 'mini' rug presentation of our members' finished rugs and any other projects done this year (including class projects; Heidi's applique, Donna's tartan pillow, Tina's felt animals). It will be fun to see what everyone has accomplished.

We had also planned to have a wool raffle at the April meeting. At this time, we're not sure if we'll be doing it in April or moving it to another time. We'll let folks know once a decision has been made.

Business Items:

- ATHA Region 1 Board positions are still open. Information is available online if you're interested.
- The Mayflower Board positions are coming up for election soon, and we are starting to take nominee suggestions. All positions are open, so if you're interested in participating as a Board member, please let Ann and Lin know.
